Sixty Per Cent. Are Aliens Thrown Off Ships to Make Room for Americans.

HELP SOUGHT IN CAPITAL

Seamen's Church Institute Fears Winter Will Find Many Unsheltered.

Between 18 000 and 19 000 seamen are ile in the port of New York owing to pping inactivity. Of this number re than 60 per cent, are aliens, acording to figures compiled by thirteen nstitutes and missions engaged in welare work for seamen in this port.

To seek immediate and future relief for seamen out of employment, as from present indications it is expected idle-ness in this industry will increase in the winter, twenty members of the New York Board of Trade and Transportaon will go to Washington to take up is phase of unemployment.

reason that so many aliens as ut of work is that in most instance only American seamen get berths aboard ording to the Rev. George A. Green of the Seamen's Church Institute n South street, which has asked the aid f Bird S. Coler, Commissioner of Pub-

of Bird S. Coler, Commissioner of Pub-lic Welfare. Dr. Green said:
"Thousands of seamen are sleeping on the docks every night. With the cold weather coming on we hope to alleviate this condition by procuring quarters in different sections of the city along the river front where unemployed seamen may obtain shelter. Unless such quar-ters are available within a short time there surely will develop a serious situa-tion."

Through Commissioner Coler the twenty representative business men were selected by Leo Kohns, president of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation. These men will accompany other committees to Washington to confer with Secretary Hoover on relief for the general unemployment conditions in this city.

On September 1 of the total number of ships in this harbor 61.5 per cent. were inactive and 38.4 per cent active. In normal times 33,000 seamen are employed on ships in this harbor, with about 10 per cent. of the shipping inactive owing to lack of sailing dates.

"An effort will be made to send some of the alien seamen to their homes and thus lighten the city's burden of caring for the unemployed," said Mr. Coler.

Registration for City Election Begins To-day, Continuing Through the Week

REGISTRATION books for the election next month of a Mayor and other city, borough and county officers, will open this afternoon at 5 o'clock, and remain open every day this week, except Saturday, from 5 to 10:30 P. M. On Saturday the registration booths will open at 7 A. M. and remain open until 10:30. This is the first Mayoralty election in which women have voted in this city.

It is necessary that every voter who expects to cast a ballot in the municipal election register at the booth in his voting district. In cases where the rent situation has compelled a voter to move from his former place of residuce, he should register from the address at

Efforts of the Republicans and Coalitionists to get out a big vote indicate that the registration, proportionately, will be extremely high for a municipal election. The registration in 1917, before women. voted, was 698,809. Last year, in the Presidential election, with the women voting, the registration was 1,367,835.

It is necessary that each registrant should enroll under the name of his party in order to enable him to vote in the next primaries.

District Attorney Investigates City Taxpayers Must Provide Gossip of Methuen and

In the meantime the District Attorney plans to have another conference with counsel representing the chief beneficiaries under the wft, probably tomorrow. Neither party to the previous conference is inclined to disclose what took place during their two hour session. The District Attorney, however, believes he now knows who wrote the anonymous letter that started the agitation for an autopsy.

All Lawrence and Methuen is awaiting with ill concealed impatience the result of the autopsy. There is a growing feeling, perhaps without foundation, that the autopsy will show some startling

"If, in the same way, the four budgets for operating the city are taken, after excluding debt service and county costs, it leaves $185,400,000 more than the 1917 rate. In this same time the counties have been allowed $4,420,000 more than four times the 1917 rate, city operation without schools $144,300,000 more, and the Borough of Manhattan 40.5%, or $4,400,000 more.

"Assuming for the sake of argument that every cent of increase since 1917 was unavoidable, the way to get the total sum which is to be explained is not to compare 1921 with 1917, but to compare the total allowances for the last

Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.
Flushed with the victory it attained nection with concessions in the tax bill, the agricultural bloc of the Senate has reorganized to obtain lower freight rates for farmers and to put through efinite programme of legislation.

Whatever may have happened to the bloc in the House, it does not appear to on its programme nineteen Senators epresenting agrarian constituencies were present, among them Kenyon (Iowa), Capper (Kan.), Borah (Idaho) Ladd (N. Dark.), McNary (Ore.), Harreld (Okla.), Hendricks (Wyo.), Smith (S. C.), Sheppard (Tex.), and Fletcher

While the agricultural bloc determined to fight for lower freight rates consider-ation of the method by which reduction the bloc will insist on consideration of them before the present session adjourns. The Capper cooperative marketing bill, which passed the House and now is on the Senate calendar, is one. This measure relieves the cooperative concerns from operations of the Sherman anti-trust law. The Kenyon bill, providing for representation of the farming interests on the Federal Reserve Board, is another. Two bills by Senator Fletcher, one of them proposing to change the personnel of the Federal Farm Lona Board, are also on the list. The membership now consists of four, with the Secretary of the Treasury ex officion member. The Fletcher bill would reduce the number to two and the Secretary of Agriculture would be placed on the board in addition to the Secretary of the Treasury.

The other Fletcher bill would reduce the number to two and the Secretary of the Treasury.

DETROIT, Oct. 9.—The State is ready to proceed with the trial of Herman F. Rade: acher, charged with murdering his wife, Gertrude, by throwing her into the Detroit River from the Belie Isle Bridge last Thursday night, Allen W. Kent, Assistant County Prosecutor, announced to-night.

In examining Rademacher, a former policeman, to-day, Mr. Kent said, it was disclosed he was in the vicinity of Belie Isle late Thursday night, accompanied by a woman. The investigation also brought out, Mr. Kent said, that Mrs. Rademacher planned Thursday to go to the island with her husband that night "to hunt rum runners."

Rademacher maintained its innocence, reiterating his statement he believed his wife left the city Thursday evening to
